UNITED STATES' RESPONSE TO DEFENDANT HAMRICK'S PROPOSED VOIR DIRE

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through Louis V. Franklin, Sr., Acting United States Attorney for the Middle District of Alabama, and Andrew C. Lourie, Acting Chief of the Public Integrity Section of the Criminal Division of the United States Department of Justice, and hereby files its Response to Defendant Paul Hamrick's Requested Voir Dire and says as follows:

1. The United States objects to question number 1 as irrelevant and unnecessarily invasive of the privacy of the jurors.
2. The United States objects to question numbers 2-6 as irrelevant.
3. The United States objects to question numbers 7-12 as irrelevant, improperly invasive of the privacy of the jurors, and having the potential to cause a given juror to fear for his or a family member's economic well being.
4. The United States objects to question numbers 13a and 14a as irrelevant, improperly invasive of the privacy of the jurors, and having the potential to cause a given juror to fear for his or a family member's economic well being.
5. The United States objects to question numbers 15-20 because they are argumentative, and have the tendency to place Defendant Hamrick's testimonial defense before the jury without giving the government the opportunity to cross examine him. Further, these questions are incomplete and misleading assertions of law because they are without sufficient facts to permit an informed decision, and because they ask the jury to reach ultimate conclusions without having been properly instructed by the court and without having heard all the evidence. These questions, therefore, are therefore prejudicial to the right of the United States to a fair trial, unduly confusing and irrelevant.

Respectfully submitted this 10th day of April, 2006.
